I agree, because I think that is good for people. That will keep most of these young people out of jail. I will accomplished something for them. It also might want them to do more than two years of military work if they like it. Maybe when they finisher they would look back on in life and say I'm glad that they may the rule when you turn 18 you have to do those two years of military because if I didn't do it I would not make it this far in life that why I'm proud of myself. This is why I agree that we should do two years of military

Score Point: 2

This response reflects flawed proficiency in persuasive writing skills. The writer agrees that all Americans should be required to perform two years of military service because it will give young people a sense of accomplishment and pride. However, there is very little development to support the writer's position and few relevant details are provided. Additionally, there are serious errors in writing conventions.
